

PD Dr.-Ing. habil. Dipl.-Biol. Daniel Meyer is a graduate biologist who started his career in production engineering in 2006 as a research assistant to Prof. Ekkard Brinksmeier at IWT Bremen. He completed his Dr.-Ing. thesis on cryogenic deep rolling in 2012 and has since become Chief Engineer of the Department of Manufacturing Technologies at IWT. He has been an associate member of CIRP since 2018 and became secretary of the CIRP STC "Surfaces" in 2024. In 2022 he finished his habilitation thesis on the interactions between materials and manufacturing processes.